Governo chinês anuncia investigação sobre segurança alimentar após indignação pública

> O governo chinês anunciou que iniciará uma investigação sobre segurança alimentar após a indignação pública seguir à uma reportagem de notícias que um caminhão tanque carregava carvão líquido e era então imediatamente utilizado para transportar óleo de cozinha.

Na semana passada, O Beijing News, que tem a reputação de um dos jornais mais ousados do continente chinês, relatou que havia testemunhado um caminhão tanque anteriormente utilizado para transportar óleo industrial de carvão sendo carregado com óleo de soja. O tanque não foi esterilizado entre as cargas, de acordo com o jornal, que disse que o episódio ocorreu no final de maio aposta betspeed Yanjiao, aposta betspeed Hebei, perto de Pequim.
Caminhoneiros entrevistados para o artigo disseram que os tanques geralmente não eram limpos antes de serem carregados com óleo de cozinha, açúcar ou outras substâncias para serem levadas a revendedores e outras empresas. Limpar um tanque leva várias horas e custa pelo menos R$40.
Nas duas últimas décadas, a China tem lidado repetidamente com preocupações com a segurança alimentar, incluindo leite aposta betspeed pó para bebês enlatado com melamina e óleo de cozinha sendo reciclado para uso contínuo, uma prática comumente conhecida como usar "óleo de canaleta".

Em um comunicado publicado às quartas-feiras, a Comissão do Conselho de Estado da China sobre Segurança Alimentar disse que as autoridades investigariam o relatório do jornal.
"Empresas ilegais e pessoas responsáveis relevantes serão punidas severamente de acordo com a lei", disse, acrescentando que também estudaria os riscos de segurança no óleo de cozinha.
Um comentário no The People's Daily, o porta-voz do Partido Comunista, publicado na segundafeira na aposta betspeed conta oficial do WeChat, disse que a segurança alimentar era de "suma importância". Continuou: "Nós devemos consistentemente nos apegar aos padrões mais rigorosos, a supervisão mais rigorosa, as penalidades mais severas e a responsabilização mais séria, sem descanso ou complacência aposta betspeed qualquer momento."
A China tentou fazer cumprir testes de alimentos rigorosos ao longo das duas últimas décadas para tranquilizar o público.
"Este escândalo realmente destrói alguma confiança do consumidor porque ainda existem algumas empresas que não seguem as regras ou realmente não se importam com a segurança ou qualidade alimentar", disse Terence Lau, fundador e presidente do Consórcio de Segurança Alimentar, uma agência sem fins lucrativos aposta betspeed Hong Kong. "Portanto, acho que fará uma
